The Spirit of Christmas.

Does any one find himself in danger of going to bed on Christmas five with-out the proper Christmas spirit in his heart? Let him come here and be filled with it. filled with it.

The spirit of Christmas past will show him wondrous things. If not scones of his own youth, like Dickens's Christmas Past, the furnishings—Dutch, English, French—that gave the setting to the Christmases of his fore-fathers. If not All Baba himself, treasures like those his "open sesame" revealed—Antique Lamps and Persian and Turkish Rugs of marvellous beauty.

and Turkish Rugs of marvellous beauty.

The spirit of Christmas present—the jolly giant that keeps the store aglow with his torch like a horn of plenty—will sprinkle him with incense of delightful suggestions.

The spirit of Christmas to come will whisper of the lasting pleasure with beautiful and durable gifts.

Try it, you who lack the Christmas inspiration, and

The Manamater Store.

Everybody's Christmas Store

IF you were here on Saturday (and the chances are that you were; it seemed as if all New York were here, and glad of it), you must have noted in the attendance the evidence of the universality of this store. We are desperately exclusive in our styles and goods, but we confess to annoyance at every repetition of the wretched little lie that applies the word to us in any other sense.

That is why we call attention with some pride to such an inpouring of everybody from everywhere as Saturday's. This is a good store in which to spend dollars if you have them, and thousands, if you have them. But it's an equally good store in which to spend pennies.

There's no "exclusiveness" about our Christmas Store. It's for everybody. And everybody seems to know it.

Things of Hollday-Gift Offerings in beauty gathered the Bric-a-Brac from the art Art Room centres of the world. French Bronzes and Castelina Marbles, Limoges Vases and fine fancy Plates, Teplitz ware and Royal Bonn. These in plenty, but our assortment of plates excels. Variety enough for any taste, for any purse. Pretty plates at only 30c.

See them. And these: At $13.50 and $16 each—Rich plates in Royal Vienna; portrait painting. At $12 and $14 each—Rich plates in Sevres. At $3.75 and $5 each—Handsome plates in Dresden. At $1 and $2 each—Besutiful plates in Li-moges china. Some hand-painted Limoges Vases, new effects, are $3, $4, $5, up to $10.

Fine pieces of Teplits ware, at $1.50 to $41.

Royal Bonn Ware Articles, in fine decorations, at $1.50 to $22.50.

An immense stock of American rich American Cut Cut Glass Glass—all that is best in these goods-is offered at prices a quarter to a third less than the market. We placed large orders when the makers needed them most, and thus the goods came into our possession advantageously. We'll part with them at prices that enable you to share the savings:

Bowls, $4, $5, $5.50, $6, up to $27 each. Carafes, $3.25, $4, $4.50, up to $14 each. Tumblers, $4.75, $6, $10, up to $30 doz. Vases, $2.25, $4, $9.50, up to $18 each. Punch Bowls, $40, $45, $57.50, up to $80. Celery Trays, $4, $6.50, ap to $10.50 each. Water Pitchers, $6.50, $7, $8, up to $25. Claret Jugs, $12.50, $14, $15, up to $25. Whiskey Jugs, $6, $7, $8.50, up to $14. Decanters, $4, $4.50, $6, up to $15 each. Olive Dishes, $1.75, $2, $2.25, up to $4.

Simply an endless variety Fancy of the most beautiful things China that man has learned to make from china and enrich with a

Come and see them, and rely upon wo things. First, that the assortment cannot be surpassed in either variety or quality by any store in America, - exclusive or otherwise. Second, that the prices are just the Linens, Centrepieces, Tray-Cloths and toilet waters and soaps, we have lowest that you can find on such goods in this country.
